FUNCTIONS2021

Established in 1899, The Australia Hotel Bar is a hidden gem to its historic beginning.

This unique and lovely restored venue is housed in one of Fremantle's original hotels. The Australia Hotel is on the corner of Parry St (original name Edward St, named for William Edward Parry) and Beach St. It has had various names and was most recently Australia Backpackers. As a licensed premise it previously traded as the Flag and Whistle and was known before that as the Harbourside and as the Australia Tavern. It is just across from the Passenger Terminal on Victoria Quay and so is one of the first buildings seen by passengers arriving on cruise ships. The newly renovated landscaped space features one of the biggest and best beer gardens in Freo, perfect for dining, drinking, and socialising with good company. We can cater for a variety of events from 10 to 400 people.
